

Vacancy announcement: Associate Editors - Radiography

Join the editorial team of an International Peer Review Journal

Radiography is an international, English language, peer-reviewed journal of diagnostic imaging and radiation therapy. It is the official professional journal of the Society and College of Radiographers and is published quarterly by Elsevier Ltd.

Following the implementation of the Journal's new strategy and the completion of the terms of office of the Review Editors, vacancies have arisen for three Associate Editors for Radiography. The period of office will commence from 1st April 2010 and will initially run for three years, with the potential to extend the term for a further two years.

The new positions will be:

- Associate Editor for Radiotherapy and Oncology
 - Associate Editor for Clinical Imaging
 - Associate Editor – International

Expressions of interest should be directed to the Publishing Editor, Ruth Beer (ru.beer@elsevier.com) who will provide a full job description and copy of the Journal Strategy.

Applications, comprising an up to date CV and a statement of interest outlining which role the applicant is interested in and how they meet the role criteria, should be sent to the Editor in Chief, Richard Price, School of Health and Emergency Professions, College Lane, University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield AL10 9AB, United Kingdom, radiographyjournal@sor.org. Applications should arrive no later than 4pm, 26th February 2010.