

Clinical Systems Improvement Programme for Allied Health Professionals

Aim:

To develop leaders skilled in clinical systems improvement

Objectives:

- Develop knowledge and skills in systems thinking and using improvement tools and techniques
- Deliver improvements in access and reducing waiting
- Lead service development that contributes to 'Delivery for Health'
- Work effectively with others in the multi-disciplinary multi-agency team in delivering patient centred improvements
- Understand how to effect organisational change
- Develop skills for continuous service improvement

Dunblane Hydro

2nd & 3rd October 2006

5th & 6th December 2006

7th March 2007

Programme Attendance is completely FREE, no delegate or attendance fees are required. Overnight accommodation is included for 2 day sessions. Part attendance by delegates is not possible and all 5 days must be completed.

All applications must be received by the 4th September 2006

For further information or general enquiries, please email:
AHP_Improvement_Event@nes.scot.nhs.uk

Open separate window to e-mail, do not use PDF auto links