UKRO 2007

It is our pleasure to invite you to attend the 4th UK Radiation Oncology Conference (UKRO) which will be held at the Heriot Watt University, Edinburgh, from 19th– 21st March 2007.

Many of you will have attended the previous UKRO meetings in York 2001, Bath 2003 and York 2005. We plan to build upon the success of these meetings to provide a further opportunity for clinical oncologists, radiotherapy physicists, therapy radiographers, radiobiologists, clinical scientists and oncology nurses to exchange ideas and engage in debates at a first class scientific meeting.

The programme will follow the pattern of previous meetings with a combination of high profile invited plenary speakers and parallel sessions aimed to cater for the interests of all delegates. Teaching lectures and proffered paper sessions are also a feature of the programme, there will also be two full days of commercial exhibition accompanying the meeting.

This year the programme has been expanded with increased opportunities for proffered papers to be presented, in response to feedback from the previous meetings.

A full social programme will be organised to encourage informal networking in a friendly atmosphere. Please visit the website on www.ukro.org.uk for further information. We look forward to welcoming you to Edinburgh in March 2007.

Yours sincerely

Peter Blake & Margaret Bidmead
Co-Presidents, UKRO 2007

Venue and Accommodation

The conference and exhibition will be held at the Heriot Watt University in Edinburgh. The James Watt Centre is a self-contained purpose-built conference centre which will house both the lectures and exhibition under one roof only a 5 minute walk from the accommodation.
